AND THE WINNERS ARE...

We 're giving away five copies of MyGrammarLab as prizes in our Facebook competition

Five followers of Pearson English Hub have won a copy of our new MyGrammarLab books by taking part in our Hands Up! competition held on our Facebook site.

We posted a photo of a classroom scene and asked people to invent a caption in English of no more than 15 words to describe it. Since then, we 've received dozens of replies and it has been a difficult job to select the best ones as we have been very impressed by the level of creativity and humour shown. However, we 've finally reached a decision and the participants who sent in the 5 answers which we liked the most will soon be receiving their copy of MyGrammarLab as detailed in the competition rules.

The winners are:

1. Carmen Cabana Regueiro - Spain

Do you believe you can? Yes? Then... Raise your hands! Both hands!

2. Anabela Quaresma - Portugal

Are you ready to learn???? Then hands up!!!!

3. Juani Marrero - Spain

Who wants to go out instead of doing the test? Me! Me! Me!

4. Zara Nunes - Portugal

Our politicians have just resigned! All of them!! Education will be run by teachers!! Hallelujah!!!!

5. Pilar Pérez - Spain

School bans children from raising their hands.

As we indicated, the winners who most currently be residents in Spain or Portugal can now choose to receive one of the following three levels that make up the MyGrammarLab series: Elementary (A1/A2), Intermediate (B1/B2) or Advanced (C1/C2).

We will be emailing the winners over the course of the coming week, at the email address provided when participating in the competition. We remind everyone that the cut-off date for any reclamation concerned with these prizes is Friday, 30th November.

After that date, if Pearson does not receive a correct postal address from any of the 5 winners so as to be able to send the book to them, we reserve the right to carry out a second draw and name a new winner or winners, if deemed appropriate.
